

Either nationalize the "local loop" to homes and businesses, or require that it be totally accessible - along with local switching offices - to all competition. Anything else is un-American.